VALENTIN ORDER

LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff Emmett Caldwell (“Plaintiff”) has filed a motion seeking to serve the John Doe defendants listed in his complaint by publication because he has not been able to locate those defendants. Dkt. No. 20. The Court subsequently granted a motion for extension of time filed by defendants City of New York and New York City Board of Education, which those defendants indicated would “allow Defendants time to obtain specific information from Plaintiff that will permit the DOE to search for records relevant to him, the John Doe defendants, and investigate the allegations in the Complaint.” Dkt. No. 21 at 1.

Under Valentin v. Dinkins, a pro se litigant is entitled to assistance from the district court in identifying a defendant. 121 F.3d 72, 76 (2d Cir. 1997). In the complaint, Plaintiff may supply sufficient information to permit the City of New York and the New York City Board of Education defendants to identify the John Doe defendants Plaintiff names in this complaint. It is therefore ordered that the City of New York Law Department, which is the attorney for the City of New York and the New York City Board of Education defendants, must ascertain the identity of each Doe whom Plaintiff seeks to sue here and the address where the defendant may be served. The New York City Law Department must provide this information to Plaintiff and the Court within sixty days of the date of this order.

Absent a showing of good cause, Plaintiff shall have thirty days after he receives this information to file an amended complaint naming the John Doe defendants. The amended complaint will replace, not supplement, the original complaint. An amendment complaint form that Plaintiff may use is attached to this Order. Once Plaintiff has filed an amended complaint, the Court will screen the amended complaint and, if necessary, issue an order asking Defendants to waive service.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion at Dkt. No. 20 to serve the John Doe defendants by publication is DENIED. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close the motion.

The Clerk of Court is also directed to mail a copy of this order and the complaint to the New York City Law Department at: 100 Church Street, New York, N.Y. 10007. An Amended Civil Rights Complaint form is attached to this order.

The Clerk of Court is further directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962) (holding that an appellant demonstrates good faith when he seeks review of a nonfrivolous issue).

SO ORDERED.

NOTICE

The public can access electronic court files. For privacy and security reasons, papers filed with the court should therefore not contain: an individual's full social security number or full birth date; the full name of a person known to be a minor; or a complete financial account number. A filing may include only: the last four digits of a social security number; the year of an individual's birth; a minor's initials; and the last four digits of a financial account number. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2.

I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal-court jurisdiction in your case?

- ☐ Federal Question

V. PLAINTIFF'S CERTIFICATION AND WARNINGS

By signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that: (1) the complaint is not being presented for an improper purpose (such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation); (2) the claims are supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument to change existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11.

I agree to notify the Clerk's Office in writing of any changes to my mailing address. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's Office may result in the dismissal of my case.

Each Plaintiff must sign and date the complaint. Attach additional pages if necessary. If seeking to proceed without prepayment of fees, each plaintiff must also submit an IFP application.
